Unrivaled Membership Benefits

Field Rescue

Global Rescue pioneered worldwide field rescue for our members in remote or dangerous environments. Our deployable teams of military special operations veterans and first responders are standing by to rescue our members who are facing a serious medical emergency more than 100 miles from home. The need for hospitalization is not required to qualify for our field rescue services.

Medical Evacuation

With deployable medical teams stationed in our operations centers in six countries, more than 1,000 contracted aircraft, and over than 200 affiliated medical centers of excellence, Global Rescue has unparalleled ability to get our members the care they transport them to their home hospital of choice.

Security Extraction

Our teams of military special operations veterans are available around the clock to provide aid and extraction when worst-case scenarios such as natural disasters, terrorist attacks and civil unrest become a reality.

Medical Advisory Services

Our members have immediate, 24/7 access to critical care paramedics, nurses and physicians to get answers, advice and care for medical problems when traveling.

I, _____, DO NOT want to purchase a Global Rescue membership for this trip. I understand that an evacuation could cost over $100,000, is not covered by insurance and may not be available without Global Rescue services. I agree to pay these costs and arrange for my own evacuation if required. I forever release, discharge and hold harmless Coast Tactical Training its employees, guides and partners from any liability resulting from my need for emergency evacuation.
